Angela and Ben - Here is the latest version of the briefing paper from this morning. Based upon our discussion this morning with Ed, the next step is for OPA to revise the Background piece of the paper as we discussed, then to send back to me, Alyse, Mary and Tom for review before it goes to OLEM with maps. In addition, I understand OPA will be revising the press release as well as putting together a fact sheet that could be distributed to the neighbors/media to address their fears.
